

Writing a diary entry

For this task, you are going to write a diary entry from either Junior's or Rowdy's perspective at the end of the novel.

Before you write your final diary entry, do the following sub tasks first.

- a) Check the solutions I provided for the worksheet Reconciliation at the end that you worked on while we were still at school but that we haven't talked about yet. Use (some of) these results to help you with the content of your diary entry.

Then, familiarize yourself again with the text format of a diary entry.

- b) For this, please copy (I mean it! I know printing would be easier but writing by hand helps remembering ...) the "Tafelbild" on Writing a diary entry into your exercise book. Make sure, you really understand what you write.
- c) Afterwards, print the worksheet Writing a diary entry_practice and do the exercise 1-2

Now, you practice what you have just learned.

- d) Write your final diary entry for either Junior or Rowdy the night they return from their one-on-one basketball match (very last chapter, pp. 200-210), reflecting on current developments, recent events, memories and / or future outlooks.
Pay attention to the structure, the content and use typical phrases.

For handing in your result, combine task c) and d) in one document and upload it.
